

Privacy Policy

Privacy/ Data Protection Notice

Market Intelligence Group sa (MIG) respects your privacy and seeks to protect your personal data.

MIG collects and uses your information to administer, support, improve and obtain feedback on our information services. MIG can use the information on the subscriber to personalize its offering. If the subscriber is registered to the information portal, MIG may contact you to obtain feedback on its service and information.

Personal Information

The personal information includes your contact details, registration and payment details, support problems and surveys.

MIG does not request personal information in any unsolicited email correspondence. Any unsolicited message asking for personal details should be treated as false and reported to MIG.

MIG may store your information in its customer relationship databases.

Passing your information to third parties

Except where the law permits or unless you specifically agree, MIG does not sell or rent your personal data to third parties.

Cookies

A "cookie" is a piece of software, which may be sent to your computer. Cookies enable us to collect information about how our information portal and services are being used and to manage them more efficiently. You can turn off the ability to receive cookies by adjusting the browser in your computer but you should note that if you do so, this may materially distort the quality of service and data you receive. You therefore do this at your own risk.

Users agree to comply with the rules and the Code of Conduct in order to maintain the quality of the user experience. MIG will take complaints about other users conduct and privacy seriously and you can raise such complaints at any time via the Leave your Opinion button.